

Bohonas Male Chorus

MAY 9th, 1964

Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium

Presented by
ST. JOHN'S INSTITUTE

The Bohonos Male Chorus

The Bohonos Male Chorus, formerly known as the Ukrainian Male Chorus of Winnipeg was formed in the Manitoba Capital in 1944 by it's present conductor, Walter Bohonos, who is a brother to Edmonton free-lance announcer John Bohonos. This conductor foresaw the possibilities of forming a good male choir from the many talented young men of the city of Winnipeg who wished to sing for the love of singing. It was not hard to find sixteen men to form the nucleus of what in later years, was to become an almost world famous choir.

During the last several years the chorus has made hundreds of personal appearances throughout Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Ontario and the Northern United States. They feel very much at home behind microphones, for they were heard many times over the C.B.C. and N.B.C. in the United States. By special request of B.B.C. recordings were made and forwarded to London, England for re-broadcast to the European continent. The group was under contract to M.G.M. records and are now considering further recording opportunities.

The chorus has had the pleasure of singing under such distinguished patronage as Their Royal Highnesses Princes Alice and the Earl of Athlone, Prime Ministers, St. Laurent and John Diefenbaker and many other dignitaries.

The primary aim of the choir was to present the Ukrainian songs to the Canadian people, but soon folk songs of other countries became part of their repertoire. Songs such as the "Blue Bells of Scotland", "Annie Laurie" and "The Happy Wanderer" became favorite requests of audiences everywhere. Mr. Roy Maley, music critic for the Winnipeg Tribune wrote, "They sang Annie Laurie so convincingly that one almost heard the skirl of the bagpipes." Mr. Frank Morriss of the Winnipeg Free Press wrote, "From any standpoint the choir is first rate, the blend is excellent, the tone is resonant and the rhythmic emphasis excellently planned."

The Bohonos Male Chorus recently performed with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Victor Feldbrill. They also performed with that same symphony in 1961.

Albertans have a chance to hear this brilliant choir as they perform in concert at the Northern Alberta Jubilee auditorium, Saturday, May 9th at 8 p.m. The program will include many Ukrainian Folk Songs along with such English selections as "Annie Laurie", "Steal Away", "The Happy Wanderer" and "Autumn Leaves".

The guest artist, Edmonton's own Taras Semchuk, Folk Ballet Dancer who appears through the permission of the Actors Equity Association. An Evening with the Bohonos Male Chorus is sponsored by the St. John's Institute.

About the Conductor

Mr. W. Bohonos a baritone himself was born in St. Julian, Sask. Moved to Winnipeg at an early age where he received his education. He has devoted most of his life to music. He arranges his own music and specializes in vocal development. When not conducting the Male Chorus, Mr. Bohonos conducts the Holy Trinity Cathedral Choir in Winnipeg.

During the 30's Mr. Bohonos organized and did all the arranging for a quartet of which he was a member, called first the "Cavaliers" and then the "Four Toppers". The group performed on network radio from Winnipeg and later went to Toronto where it was recognized as the best of its kind in Canada.

Now with 29 singers to work with Mr. Bohonos has the opportunity to utilize every voice in the chorus resulting in the molding of the finest Male Chorus in the country.

GUEST ARTISTS

Taras Semchuk

Mr. Taras Semchuk is a student at the University of Alberta in an Arts pattern. Before entering 'Varsity he did extensive work in the Royal Ballet School at London, England, entering the school on a scholarship. There he performed in "Swan Lake", "Sleeping Beauty", "Aida", and the "Trojans".

Since his return to Canada he has appeared in Toronto and in Winnipeg's Rainbow Stage taking part in the "West Side Story". In Edmonton he was guest artist for the Shumka Dancers, participated in C.B.C. television programmes, and 'Varsity Varieties productions.

Viki Wynnchuk

Viki Wynnchuk has been active in piano and violin circles ever since she started studying these two instruments. She has been a successful candidate in all her examinations whether it was with the Western Board or the Toronto Conservatory.

She received seven silver medals for violin, and scholarship which took her for further study in the Banff School of Fine Arts and the Stratford National Youth Orchestra.

From then on she developed her many talents in drama, voice and dance. Viki was chosen twice, in the Zone 3 Drama Festival, for the "Best Actress Award" and participated as a member of the Canada Council High School Students' Tour and went to the Shakespearean Festival in Stratford, Ontario. She sang in her church choir, performed in concerts in Vegreville and Edmonton.

These last two years Viki has taken Education at the University of Alberta and worked as soprano lead in Varsity Varieties, took the lead in "Can-Can" for the Edmonton Civic Opera and was guest soloist for the "Shumka Dancers" performance.

In the field of dancing she has worked in concert with the U. of A. Club International, U. of A. Jubilairs Club and the St. John's Institute concerts.
